Impressions
NEVER FADE

HIWASSEE COLLEGE

Dedicated To Great Beginnings

Madisonville, TN
37354

"Some Impressions Never Fade" was chosen for the theme of the Hiwassee yearbook this year. This is because we really believe in the impression that this school makes upon its students. Whether it is in the classroom, the chapel, the cafeteria, in the barn, or even in the dorm at night, Hiwassee really leaves an impression on us and we as students leave an impression on it. We have worked very hard to document the impressions at Hiwassee this year and some impressions never fade.

Spring Formal

On April 7, 1995, the annual spring formal was held at the Tellico Village and Yacht Club. Although it started slow, the turnout was very high. Late into the night, as the mood became more romantic, more and more dancers poured onto the dance floor. It was a memorable night for all who went.

The 1994 Homecoming Dance was an evening of fun for those who attended — loud and soft music, food, and just plain fun. Like previous years, the dance was held at Tellico Village and Yacht Club. The 1994 theme was "Forever's as Far as I'll Go," also the name of an Alabama song.

We have enjoyed representing the Sophomore class by serving as President and Vice-President. We've had lots of fun planning our Sophomore class trip to Daytona Beach. We appreciate all of the participation of the students in their willingness to help out. Our time spent at Hiwassee has been a great opportunity to experience college life. We appreciate the helpfulness of all of the teachers here. They go out of their way to make you feel accepted, special, and important, while offering help and encouraging you to be open-minded and be a productive thinker. We have very many special memories of the times we've shared here and all of the crazy experiences and late night talks that will never be forgotten.

TIP Students

Every year during the fall semester, a group of students come to Hiwassee from Japan to study English and secretarial skills. In doing this, they meet many new friends. This year, a group of students became American brothers and sisters. The memory of the TIP will forever remain in the hearts and minds of the American students who were able to get to know them around their busy schedules.

Teresa Chasteen is a new face around Hiwassee, but certainly a pleasant one. Mrs. Chasteen joined the faculty in the fall as a new English teacher. She is very appreciated and loved by students around our campus.

Steve Blakemore is another very respected member of our faculty. Many of the students remember his cheerful smile and warming words as a friend and as a chaplain.

Dr. Schiavoni may have a wild side, but he will certainly keep you amused during English class.

"This is my favorite BSU friend, Teddy. He wants you to join our little family and become a friend of ours too," says Elizabeth Wade.

"Okay, will you please leave so I can get ready for class?" asks Dr. McCall.

Mrs. Daugherty is an intelligent woman with a flair for taking pictures. But watch out, she just might catch you off guard, if you don't catch her first.

Yearbook Staff

Recording Their Impressions

"Would you please leave me alone?"

1995 has been another long year for the Hiwassee College yearbook staff. The goal of the faculty at Hiwassee College is to provide students with a good well-rounded lifestyle. The student body has achieved this by involving themselves in various activities and organizations. The Hiwassee yearbook included aspects of academics and social life. The staff has worked many long hours to provide the student body with a record of their many memories of 1995. We hope that we have given you something that you can look back on with pride. We tried to include everything because everyone has made an impression at Hiwassee, and some impressions never fade.

Room Service

Under Edward L. Powers' direction, Theatre Hiwassee had another productive and successful year. ROOM SERVICE, a comedy, started the year out with a hilarious bang. Tennessee Williams' classic, THE GLASS MENAGERIE, soon followed. THE APPLE TREE, which was a musical containing three one-act plays, was also performed. The names of the acts were THE DIARY OF ADAM AND EVE, THE LADY OR THE TIGER, and PASSIONELLA. Many fine actors worked hard to bring about these productions.

Baptist Student Union

BSU is a Christian organization which helps spread the word of Christ to people in the community and also to the people on campus. The organization met on Thursdays at 5:00 p.m. BSU participated in various activities such as the BSU State Retreats and other outings. The organization sponsored bi-weekly noonday luncheons after chapel. The BSU also participated in a film series sponsored by the Christian Life Committee. The film series' theme is "Life on the Edge." The series was held at various faculty members' homes on the first Monday night in each month. The BSU sponsor was Mrs. Elizabeth Wade for the 94-95 school year.

Christian Student Movement

Christian Student Movement is an extremely active organization on campus that furthers the spiritual development. CSM provided worship services every Wednesday night at 7:30 in the chapel. Meetings involved singing, Bible study, question/answer sessions with guest speakers, and exciting group activities.

But CSM's activities went much further than that. CSM also sponsored mission trips to Sneedville and Scott county. Coffeehouses was a time for students to unwind, eat cheesecake, and listen to music. Some students even danced to the music. Late in the year CSM sponsored a pizza party in the cafeteria and a free weekend retreat to Gatlinburg for all students. In doing this, CSM spread the good news of Christ to each other in an unforgettable way. The CSM sponsor for the 1994-95 was Chaplain Steve Blakemore.

Student Government Association

Representing the wishes of Hiwassee College students, SGA acts as a governing body made up entirely of students. Each representative on SGA comes from one club on campus. Members of SGA decide on issues such as dances and plan other activities for students. These individuals worked hard to plan the events that occurred over the year.

The Izaak Walton League is a non-profit organization that deals with the issues such as clean water and air, wildlife habitat, public lands management, protection of natural areas, and enhanced outdoor recreation. The Izaak Walton League is a local chapter of the national organization. Over the course of the past year, the League has engaged in a number of activities. They co-sponsored the "Poetry by the Pond," which was a night of poetry reading provided by some of the faculty and students of Hiwassee. The League has also been involved in some environmental programs. The League's plans included distributing tree siblings to local elementary students, having a camp out in the Smokies, getting together with members from the national organization and promoting environmental conservation. The League helped many students and faculty get in touch with nature and it gave them a chance to do something good for the environment.

Impressive Culture — Lyceum

Ronlin Foreman earned his titles of "infectious fool, inspired lunatic, and a clown extraordinaire" in one performance at Hiwassee sponsored by Theatre Hiwassee and Monroe Area Council for the Arts.

Mr. Foreman received an education from the University of Southern Mississippi. He has been nationally acclaimed by many studios and theatres. He is considered a major proponent of movement theatre in the United States.

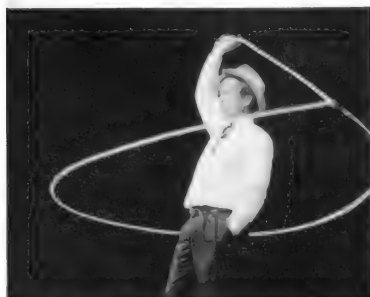

During his introduction by Mr. Powers, Mr. Foreman began his performance by interrupting the introduction.

After explaining the difference between a comedian and a fool, he made it very clear that he was a fool. He then battled with springing shoes and a Kymono; he went from being a fool to a clown. He also included the audience in many of his comic routines including bread dodging. Nevertheless, he made the night enjoyable with his slapstick humor and light-hearted jokes. Foreman's hallmarks are his characters (fool, clown, grotesque) and his ability to play profoundly with comedy, irreverently with the profound, and outrageously with the audience.

Lance Brown, a Chicago native, has been a professional actor and musician for over 18 years. He has also had real world experiences that range from driving heavy machinery to military service to social work. He has performed for many different groups across the country, from Nome, Alaska, where he performed for Native Americans, to Washington, D.C., where he performed for the National Press Club. He has also been everywhere in between. "Tribute to Will Rogers — A voice for the 90's."

Student Support Services is an organization that is dedicated to the idea that every student is unique, and that is quite evident when the student enters. But the "support" goes much further than simply academics. The organization provides other benefits such as spiritual advancement. Encouragement is also stressed here as a way of life, as each student is urged to reach his or her full potential.

The Learning Center

The Learning Center is located in the Barker Learning Center, Room 106. This computer center contains ten Apple IIe computers, four Imagewriter II printers, a Macintosh SE, and a Macintosh Plus. A wide variety of programs (whether on computer, videotapes, or cassettes) is available in major subject areas: Math: basic math, algebra, calculus, geometry, and statistics; English: poetry, composition, grammar, study skills, and vocabulary. Foreign language: Spanish and French. Other areas include touch typing and word processing for writing papers, reports, and designing signs.

The Center is open to all students and employs student assistants who are responsible for setting up the programs, videos or cassettes. These assistants also tutor in one or more subjects for students having difficulty.

By using the Learning Center, students can gain hands-on experience with computers as well as improve their performance in the subjects studied.

SMOKEY MOUNTAIN PROPHECY

afternoon pine forest enclosing a moist churned trace hills you could run your hand over

sound of horses
ambling across on the warmth
from a field by the wood

the pine trees intercept the slanted beams
the ball of gold already burrowing into the Tennessee hills
the gloom tinted green
in half-accomplished twilight

I looked down at my hands;
in that senility of daylight
they were
white, the hands of a ghost

Jim Schiavoni

MY GHOSTLY VISITOR

Echoing sounds are present
as I proceed down the hall
the empty rooms are waiting for the arrival of the ghost
the presence still lingers
so does the memory
old images float past my eyes
as I recall what used to be the ghost appears before me
past footsteps can be heard
I am not full of dread or fear
all I feel is regret for what never was or will be but I go on seeking.

The Social-Psychology club has been one of the most active clubs on campus this year. They have been helping the community and the campus throughout the year. Social-Psychology focused much of their efforts on helping the Friendship Home for the mentally disabled. For Christmas and Easter, they threw the home a party. They gave them Food Source Baskets containing thirty pounds of food twice this year. They also visited them on Valentine's Day. The club's main contribution was a dryer donated by the Methodist Women's Club and the Social-Psych Club. The club helped the students by sponsoring a Halloween Dance and the campus visit and speech of Congressman John Duncan, Jr. He spoke to the school on political issues. The club had various fund-raisers throughout the year such as a car wash and a pancake breakfast. Good Job, Social-Psychology! Hiwassee appreciates your efforts.

Choir Impressive in Florida

Upon leaving the rolling hills of East Tennessee, the Hiwassee College Chorale set out for a weekend in Florida. Twelve hours later, they arrived in rainy and wet St. Augustine. Spirits were somewhat gloomy with the forecast of rain on the choir's scheduled beach day. The weather cleared, however, and everyone had fun shopping and swimming on St. Augustine Beach. Then they visited the historic district of the nation's oldest city, including El Castillo de San Marcos and shopping nearby. After being on the beach, the choir traveled to nearby Middleburg, home of choir member Heather Koepp. There they stayed with host families and sang at Middleburg Presbyterian Church, Middleburg United Methodist, and St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. After a long and exhausting day, the choir stayed at the church and host homes before coming back the next day.

The Citation of Merit, Hiwassee's highest honor, was awarded to Ms. Zula K. Trotter. Glenn Kirksey was named as the highest honors recipient, and Katressa Tipton was named as the 2nd highest honors recipient in the graduating class. The 1994-95 Baccalaureate Service was a chance for the graduates and college faculty, as well as for family and friends, to come together to honor the graduates, but more importantly, to worship God. This marked the last time that the graduates would come together to worship as Hiwassee students. The Baccalaureate Service included singing by Shalom, a sermon by Reverend Ray E. Editor's Impressions . . .

"Some Impressions Never Fade." Such a theme for this annual rings true for me as I hope it has for every student at Hiwassee.

I wish to thank all the people who have helped me to make it this far, especially my parents, my friends, Ms. Tompkins, Mrs. Wade, and Dr. McCall for inspiration to keep on going. Most of all, however, I wish to thank God for the strength and ability to work harder each day, especially around deadlines.

Special credit is given to Paul Barker for drama pictures, Marlin Curnutt for the basketball pictures, Alice Rolen for typing copy, and Tim Selvidge for his photography. If there is anyone I left out, I apologize, for it is hard to remember everyone who has helped me during the year. I also wish to thank every member of the 1994-95 staff:

Co-Editor Sarah Melton
Angie Fields
Michael McConkey
Liberty Kelley

Jackie Sylvester
Stephanie Roy
Shemece Smith

Remember, each of us has made an impression at Hiwassee, and some impressions never fade.

— Richard Rudesill
